Directions: Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, a fox and a donkey made a plan to go hunting together. "With my cunningness and your speed", said the fox, "we're sure to be successful." All went well until suddenly, a fierce lion jumped out in their path. The fox quickly went and whispered in the lion's ear. "If you let me go, I'll lead the donkey into a cave from which it can't escape", he promised. "Then you'll have an easy supper."

The lion agreed, so the fox did as he had said, and turned to the lion looking pleased with himself. "There you are," he said. "The donkey is trapped, just as I promised." "Well done, my friend", said the lion. "Now, I can eat you for tea and enjoy the donkey for supper later on." And with that he killed the disloyal fox.
