It is generally acknowledged that children learn a lot from their parents. It is not so commonly admitted that parents learn a great deal from children. As adults, 'it is easy to assume that we are always right, but laugh was on me one beautiful day.

My daughter Nidhi knew how much I love flowers. One day when she was of eight years, she picked some branches from our neighbor's blossoming fruit tree. Realizing she intended to please me, I didn't scold her, but chose a different approach. "These are lovely, dear, but do you realize that if you would have left them on the tree, each of these blossoms would have become a cherry?"

"No, they wouldn't have", she said firmly.

"Oh, yes, they would have. Each of these blossoms would have grown into a cherry."

"Well okay, mother, if you insist", she finally conceded, but they were plums last year."
