Read the following passage and answer the questions that follows(Q 12- Q15)

I arrived in London at last. The railway station was big, black and dark. I did not know the way to my hotel, so asked a porter. I spoke English not only very carefully, but clearly as well. The porter, however, could not understand me. I repeated my questions several times and at last he understood. He answered me, but he spoke neither slowly nor clearly "I am but I could not understand him, a foreigner", I said. Then he spoke slowly, but I could not understand him. My teacher never spoke English like that! The porter and I looked at each other and smiled. Then he said something and I understood it. "You'll soon learn English!" he said. I wonder in England, each man speaks different language. The English understand each other, but I don't understand them! Do they speak English?
