

Direction (Q. No. 11 to 20): Identify whether the sentence has a compound subject, compound predicate or both compound subject and compound predicate.

1. Jim and Tom climb rock walls.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
2. Mr. Scott writes and draws on the computer program.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
3. Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse were creation of Walt Disney.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
4. Flowers and trees can be found near the capital.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
5. John selected and paid for the new CD.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
6. Dolphins are swimming and splashing in water.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
7. Sam and Sia are talking and eating at same time.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
8. We went to the store and bought candy.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
9. My friend and I are happy at the mall.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both
10. Mr. John and his students study hard and learn a lot.
a) Compound Subject b) Compound Predicate c) Both