READING

Q. No. 9 to 11: Read the passage and answer the following questions.

“There is always someone worse off than you.” Once upon a time, the rabbits of Jim Corbett were so terrorised by the other animals, they did not know where to go. As soon as they saw a single animal approach them, off they used to run. One day, they saw a troop of wild horses stampeding about and in quite a panic all the rabbits scuttled off to a lake close by, determined to drown themselves rather than live in a continual state of fear. But just as they got near the bank of the lake, a troop of frogs frightened in their turn by the approach of the rabbits, scuttled off and jumped into the water. “Truly,” said one of the rabbits, “things are not so bad as they seem.” There is always someone worse off than you.
